

Privacy Policy

Free Rumble recognizes the importance of privacy. This Privacy Policy applies to all products, services and websites offered by Free Rumble or its subsidiaries and affiliates, the following will be referred to simply as Free Rumble "Service".

Using data collected by Free Rumble

We offer various services that require the registration of an account or submission of personal information. In order to offer the full range of our services, we may collect the following types of information:

- Information you provide. When a user registers a Free Rumble account or another Free Rumble service or promotion, we ask you to enter personal information such as name, email address and password. For some services, such as our advertising programs, we also request a credit card number or other information on making payment for the account which we keep in encrypted form on secure servers. We may combine the information you submit under your account with information from other Free Rumble services or third parties in order to facilitate navigation and improve the quality of our services. Some services allow you to decline this combination of information.
- Cookies. When you visit the Free Rumble website, we send one or more cookies (a small file containing a string of characters) to your computer that identifies your browser. We use cookies to improve the quality of our service, as well as to store user preferences, optimize search results and the selection of ads and track user behavior, such as, how people search. Free Rumble also uses cookies in its advertising services to help advertisers and publishers to deliver and manage their ads on the web (NET). We may set a cookie on your browser when you visit a website, including Free Rumble sites, and view or click on an ad supported by Free Rumble advertising services.
- Information Access. When a user accesses Free Rumble services, our servers automatically record information sent from his browser whenever you visit a website. These server logs may include information such as the user's web request, his IP address, the type and the language of his browser, the date and time of his request and one or more cookies that may uniquely identify your his browser.
- User communications. When the user sends emails or other communications to Free Rumble, Free Rumble may retain those communications in order to process and satisfy the requests of the user and improve our services.
- Free Services Rumble affiliates on other sites. Some of our services are offered on other websites or through other websites. It is possible that personal data provided to such sites may be sent to Free Rumble in order to supply the service. This data is processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy. It is possible that the affiliate sites through which our services are offered have different policies on privacy, so the user is advised to consult the relevant regulations.

- Gadgets. Free Rumble may make third party applications available through its services. Information collected by Free Rumble (when the user enables a gadget or another application) is processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy. The information collected by the supplier of the gadget or application shall be governed by the privacy policy of that supplier.
- Link. Free Rumble may present links in a format that allows you to keep track of whether these links have been followed. We use this information to improve the quality of our search technology, of our customized content and of advertising. See the glossary for more information about links and redirected URLs.
- Other sites. This Privacy Policy applies only to Free Rumble services. We have no control over the sites displayed as a consequence of search results or on sites that include applications, products or Free Rumble services or links from within our various services. These sites may place their own cookies or other files on your computer, collect data or solicit personal information from you.

Free Rumble processes personal information only for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and/or the supplementary privacy notices for specific services. In addition to those already mentioned above, such purposes include:

- Offering our services to users, including the publication of customized content and advertising;
- Auditing, research and analysis in order to maintain, protect and improve our services;
- Ensuring the technical functioning of our network;
- Safeguarding rights or property of Free Rumble and its users.
- Developing new services.

For more information on procedures for handling personal information, refer to the supplementary privacy notices for specific services.

Free Rumble processes personal information on our servers in the United States of America and other countries. In some cases, the processing of personal data occurs on a server located outside your country of residence. We reserve the right to process personal information to provide our services. In some cases, we process personal information on behalf of third parties, such as our advertising partners, in accordance with the instructions they have provided us.

OPTIONS AVAILABLE for personal DATA

When the user subscribes to a particular service that requires registration, we ask him to provide certain personal information. If we decide to use such data for a purpose different from that for which it has been collected, we will first ask for his consent.

In the event that Free Rumble proposes the use of personal information for purposes other than those described in this Privacy Policy and/or privacy policies of a specific service, Free Rumble will offer users an effective way of not giving consent for the use that personal information for those other purposes. Free Rumble will not collect or use sensitive information for purposes other than those described in this Privacy Policy and / or the supplementary privacy notices for specific services without prior consent.

Most browsers accept cookies by default, but you can reset your browser to block all of them or alert you when it is receiving one. However, some features and some Free Rumble services may not function correctly if cookies are disabled.

Free Rumble uses cookies advertising on the sites of AdSense partners and some Free Rumble services to help advertisers and publishers to deliver and manage ads on the web. You can view, edit and manage the preferences of the ads associated with this cookie BY accessing the tool Preferences Manager announcements. In addition, you may decide to withhold your consent for the use of the DoubleClick cookie at any time by using the opt-out cookie DoubleClick.

You can decline to submit personal information to any of our services but, in this case, Free Rumble may not be able to guarantee delivery of guarantee delivery of the service.

Data sharing

Free Rumble shares personal information with other companies or individuals outside of Free Rumble in the following cases:

- That THE USER HAS given his consent, obligatory for the sharing of sensitive, personal information.
- That we provide such information to our subsidiaries or affiliated companies or other trusted businesses or persons with the task of processing personal data on our behalf. We require that these parties agree to process such information based on our instructions and in compliance with this Privacy Policy, and with any other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.
- That we have good reason to believe that access, use, preservation or disclosure of such information is reasonably necessary to (a) satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process or request of state bodies and institutions in force; (b) enforce applicable Terms of Service, including investigation of potential violations thereof, (c) detect, prevent or otherwise address fraud or other technical problems or safety, or (d) protect the rights, property or safety of Free Rumble, its users and the public as required or permitted by law.

In the event of involvement of Free Rumble in a merger, acquisition or other form of sale of all or part of its assets, we are committed to ensuring the confidentiality of all personal data affected by these transactions and to providing notice before personal information is transferred and becomes subject to a different privacy policy.

We may share with third parties certain pieces of aggregated, non-personal information, such as the number of users who searched for a specified period or the number of users who clicked on a particular ad. This type of information does not identify the user personally.

For more questions about the management or use of personal information, please contact Free Rumble at the address below: info@freerumble.com

Protection of information

We adopt appropriate security measures to prevent any unauthorized access or alteration, disclosure or destruction of data. These measures include internal reviews of our procedures for collecting, storing and processing data and our security measures as well as measures of physical protection to prevent unauthorized access to systems where personal data is stored.

Access to personal information is limited to employees, contractors and agents of Free Rumble who require such information to manage, develop or improve our services. These figures are bound by confidentiality obligations and may be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment and criminal prosecution, if they do not fulfill these obligations.

Data Integrity

Free Rumble processes personal information exclusively for the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with the current provisions of this Privacy Policy or any privacy policy applicable to a specific service. We regularly check our procedures for the collection, storage and processing practices to ensure that data is collected, stored and that only the personal information needed to provide or improve our services or as otherwise permitted by this Policy is processed. We take appropriate steps to ensure that the personal information we process is accurate, complete and current, but it is the responsibility our users to update or correct their personal information whenever necessary.

Accessing and updating personal information

When the user uses Free Rumble services, we are committed to providing in good faith access to his personal data and we offer to correct it, should they be inaccurate, or delete it at the user's request, unless it is necessary to retain IT by law or for legitimate business purposes. We ask individual users to identify themselves and the data which they wish to access or ask us to correct or remove before processing such requests. We also reserve the option of not dealing with requests that are unreasonably repetitive or systematic, require disproportionate technical effort, which threaten the privacy of others, which are impractical (for instance, requests concerning information residing on backup tapes), or to which access is not required. In all cases in which we provide access to data or offer correction, we perform this service for free, except where doing so would require a disproportionate effort. Some of our services require different procedures to access, correct or delete users' personal data. Detailed information on these procedures is available in the specific privacy notices of those services or in the section Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) of such service.

Changes to this Policy

This Privacy Policy is subject to change over the course of time. We will not inhibit the rights of the user under this Policy without his explicit consent and we foresee most changes of this nature to be minor. In any case, any changes to this Privacy Policy will be posted on this page and, should the changes be significant, we will report it more prominently (for some services we will notify you via email). Each version of this Privacy Policy will be identified at the top of the page by its effective date, and earlier versions of the Privacy Policy will be archived for your review.
